

LITURGICAL ARTIST PRESENTS "ART FOR WORSHIP: MAKING MEANING IN COMMUNITY"

From April 7-11, liturgical artist Karen Godecke will lead the Pittsburgh Seminary community toward enhancing our Holy Week/Eastertide chapels. As a resident guest on our campus, Karen will help us create community-made art to include in those services. As part of the week-long program, individuals will be invited to spend a few minutes working on a small piece of what will become a large art installation in Hicks Chapel. You are always welcome to join us for worship, Monday-Thursday at 11:30 a.m. during the academic year. Services are held in the Hicks Chapel.

Wed., April 9, 2014, Karen will give a presentation entitled, "Art for Worship: Making Meaning in Community," from 4:00-5:00 p.m. in McNaugher Lounge, McNaugher Hall. The talk is free and open to the public. She explains her calling and approach in these words, "As a Liturgical artist, I want to live an authentic life of faith that is connected to Christian community. This means being an active art-maker in daily life, . . . It also means . . . search[ing] for tangible ways to engage multi-age church members in the creation of visual faith-art."

This program is made possible through a Worship Renewal Grant from the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship, Grand Rapids, Mich., with funds provided by Lilly Endowment Inc.

From April 7-11, liturgical artist Karen Godecke will lead the Pittsburgh Seminary community toward enhancing our Holy Week/Eastertide chapels. As a resident guest on our campus, Karen will help us create community-made art to include in those services. As part of the week-long program, individuals will be invited to spend a few minutes working on a small piece of what will become a large art installation in Hicks Chapel. You are always welcome to join us for worship, Monday-Thursday at 11:30 a.m. during the academic year. Services are held in the Hicks Chapel.

Wed., April 9, 2014, Karen will give a presentation entitled, "Art for Worship: Making Meaning in Community," from 4:00-5:00 p.m. in McNaugher Lounge, McNaugher Hall. The talk is free and open to the public. She explains her calling and approach in these words, "As a Liturgical artist, I want to live an authentic life of faith that is connected to Christian community. This means being an active art-maker in daily life, . . . It also means . . . search[ing] for tangible ways to engage multi-age church members in the creation of visual faith-art."

This program is made possible through a Worship Renewal Grant from the Calvin Institute of Christian Worship, Grand Rapids, Mich., with funds provided by Lilly Endowment Inc.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
616 North Highland Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15206
Phone: 412-362-5610

FIND YOUR PROGRAM

REQUEST INFO

APPLY ONLINE

VISIT THE CAMPUS

News & EventsContactDirectionsEmployment Save Page As PDF

Privacy Policy

COVID-19

Accessibility

Anti-Discrimination

Title IX And Anti-Harassment