OVERVIEW

Join us for two days exploring how churches and communities can work together to facilitate anti-racism in their neighborhoods. Our conversation kicks off Friday with the Kelso Lecture, delivered by the Rev. Dr. Starsky Wilson. Metro-Urban Institute's conference filled with workshops, a panel discussion, worship, a community lunch, and resource fair follows on Saturday. All are welcome!

This event is co-sponsored by the Seminary's Office of Continuing Education and Metro-Urban Institute.

CEUs: 0.1 for Friday lecture, 0.3 for Saturday event

LOCATION

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, 616 N. Highland Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15206 (lecture online and in person; conference in person only)
