

MISSIONAL CHURCH THINK TANK

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary's World Mission Initiative will co-sponsor with Church

Innovations the 2010 Missional Church Think Tank, April 11-13. The Think Tank is a two-day gathering of specially invited persons who come from different places and roles in the Church. They work inside their groups and in plenary to wrestle with a central question. This year, participants will ask, "How does the missional church look?" Anticipated cohorts include founding generation, missional church executives, national-level leaders, partnership for missional church participants, younger scholars, and leaders under 35.

The World Mission Initiative is a fellowship of Presbyterians dedicated to developing mission vision, nurturing missionary vocations, and cultivating missional congregations. WMI exists to help Christians understand how God is at work in the world and how they can share in that work.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 320 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God's message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
