

OCTOBERQUEST VISIT EVENT OCT. 15-16

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary will host OctoberQuest, an event for prospective students,

Fri., Oct. 15-Sat., Oct. 16. This event will occur on campus, 616 N. Highland Ave.

The Friday portion of the program will be devoted to the discernment journey. Sessions will reflect on call as it is experienced through Scripture, through life experience, and through the stories of current students. Lunch and dinner will be provided. You will explore the city, and join together for evening prayer. Saturday will include faculty-led workshops, tours of campus, information from our admissions and financial aid officers, and fellowship opportunities with current students. Attend Friday, Saturday, or both. Explore your options—and we hope—see how Pittsburgh Seminary can lead you on a pathway to faithful service.

For those traveling from a distance, overnight housing will be provided. There is no fee for this event. Spouses, parents, or family members are welcome to attend. Reserve your place at this OctoberQuest Event using our online reservation form found at www.pts.edu/visit, e-mailing Click to view e-mail, or calling 1-800-451-4194.

Pittsburgh Seminary offers Master of Divinity, Master of Divinity dual degrees in Law, Social Work, and Public Policy, Master of Arts, Master of Sacred Theology, and Doctor of Ministry degrees. Special programs include exciting continuing education programs, a Metro-Urban Institute with graduate-level courses focusing on urban ministry, the World Mission Initiative, and the James L. Kelso Bible Lands Museum.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and approximately 320 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God's message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
