

A SPIRITUAL FORMATION ELECTIVE

INSTRUCTOR

Lynn Holden, Licensed Professional Counselor and Spiritual Director

OVERVIEW

We take care of the things we love, and Jesus teaches us to "love your neighbor as yourself." Join in this comprehensive conversation about the complexity and necessity of self-care. At the conclusion of the class, participants should be able to:

1. Identify and engage with familial, theological and cultural messages that support or are not supportive of self-care.
2. Recognize personal patterns from a variety of perspectives and approach those patterns with curiosity.
3. Reflect on themes of willingness, willfulness, addiction, and freedom as they present themselves in daily life and relate to self-care.
4. Articulate a basic understanding of neuroscience and the role of spiritual, behavioral, cognitive, and relational practices in the experience of formation and re-formation of the brain.
5. Utilize a variety of tools and strategies for sustainable self-care.
6. Discuss ethical implications of self-care.

This class is open to all regardless of their participation in the Spiritual Formation Certificate Program. If you are interested in learning more about the certificate program, please let us know and our office will be happy to send you details (ConEd@pts.edu).
