During Pittsburgh Seminary's Fourth Annual Community Conversation on Race and Faith and the Kelso Lecture, Kelly Brown Douglas, Dean at Episcopal Divinity School at Union Theological Seminary, presented "Black Bodies and the Justice of God." This lecture drew from her book Stand Your Ground: Black Bodies and the Justice of God.

Below you'll find two PDFs; one includes a set of questions and the other includes a framework and guidelines for leading a discussion about Brown Douglas' Stand Your Ground. We encourage you to assemble a group in your church or community, read her book, and discuss the issues of race and faith that she addresses in Stand Your Ground.
