

VIRTUAL VISIT EVENT FOR PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, along with nine other seminaries of the Presbyterian Church

(USA), and the Committee on Theological Education of the PCUSA, will be hosting a virtual fair Tues., Feb. 12, 2013 from 1:00-5:00 p.m. local time. This is an opportunity for prospective students to learn about PTS, as well as the other seminaries, from the comfort of their homes via the Internet. Information about degree programs, financial aid, faculty, and the opportunity to apply online are some of the features easily accessible with the click of the mouse. Admissions representatives will be readily available for live text chatting. Join us by visiting <http://www.seminarytour.org/> during the scheduled time.

Pittsburgh Seminary offers Master of Divinity, Master of Divinity joint degrees in Law, Social Work, and Public Policy, Master of Arts, Master of Sacred Theology, Master of Divinity with an emphasis in Church Planting, Master of Divinity with Graduate Certificate in Urban Ministry, and Doctor of Ministry degrees. Special programs include continuing education opportunities, a Metro-Urban Institute, the World Mission Initiative, and the James L. Kelso Bible Lands Museum.

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary is a graduate professional institution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A). Founded in 1794, the Seminary is located in Pittsburgh, Pa. and more than 300 students are enrolled yearly in the degree programs. The Seminary prepares leaders who proclaim with great joy God's message of good news in both word and deed. PTS is rooted in the Reformed history of faithfulness to Scripture and commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
