Ryan Jensema is director of financial aid. He earned his degrees from Dordt College (B.A.) and Abilene Christian University (M.Ed.). Previously he served as financial aid specialist and interim director of financial aid at Community College of Allegheny County and as a teacher at Trinity Christian School. While at CCAC, Ryan piloted a program which leveraged social media to assist with financial planning and FASFA completion to make the financial aid process more accessible to students. He is an active member of the Pennsylvania Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators and is currently serving on the Government Relations Committee.
