

CELEBRATING THE CLASS OF 2020

On Fri., May 29, 2020, we celebrated Pittsburgh Theological Seminary's 224th Commencement with virtual festivities.

This virtual celebration combines elements of a traditional graduation ceremony with activities that take advantage of the online medium. Lasting approximately 40 minutes, it includes remarks from President David Esterline, reading of each graduate's name, announcement of this year's graduation award recipients, and well wishes from faculty and staff.

GRADUATION VIDEO

The Seminary remains committed to honoring our graduates with an in-person commencement when circumstances permit large gatherings again, but the PTS community is determined not to let this class's milestone go unmarked.
